About the Library

The library is a fully searchable collection of HTML and Adobe Acrobat PDF documents on various animal health and production topics. The documents in the library can be accessed via the table of contents on the left of the screen, or by entering search criteria and retrieving a list of documents that match the search criteria.

 To access the Adobe Acrobat PDF files you will need Adobe Acrobat Reader installed on your PC. The software is free and can be downloaded from the Adobe website.

Searching the Library

Enter a word or phrase in the search box and then click the Search button.

The results will be ranked according to the number of hits per document, with documents containing the highest number of hits being displayed first.

Next to each document in the search results there will be an icon indicating whether the document is an HTML file or an Acrobat PDF file. There will also be an indication of the size of the file.

Using the Table of Contents

From the main library page You can use the table of contents on the left of the screen to navigate through the library documents. Use the mouse to click on items in the table of contents.
